MONEY MARKET: MONDAY, Jan. 16-6 P. M.

There was a very irregular, unsettled market to-day there was considerable activity, while in others the trans netions were limited. The European news has had no ef set upon prices, either of a favorable or unfavorable shavacter. At the first board Illinois Central Railroad bends declined 1/2 per cent; Florence and Keyport, 1/4; In-Mana Construction Railroad, &; Michigan Central, &; Marlem, M. Canton Company went up % per cent; Nie ragua Transit, Mr. Erie Railroad, M. At the second oard there was no perceptible change in the market a far as prices were concerned. There was a better demand for some of the coal stocks. Nicaragus has not varied one per cent for many days, and the transactions have been quite heavy. The drst let-up in the market will some of the fancies forward with a rush, and it may some any moment. It will be very difficult to depress prices much lower. The market has been severely tried, and weak holders pretty effectually cleaned out. The fancies generally are now in strong hands, and the bears do not make much impression upon them.

The following sales of stocks were made at auction to day, after the adjournment of the board, by A. H. Nico-

$228,336. The amount of specie on hand has increased $228,336. The only variation of importance during the past week has been in the item of deposits, and that has been greater than during any previous week since the weekly statements commenced. A portion of this reduc-tion has been caused, doubtless, by the payment of dividends. The increase of loans, which has for some time past been to steady and gradual, has ceased; but the decrease is too small to have any effect upon the money market. The aggregate circulation of the city bank', on the 14th of January was less than we have reported any time within the past six months, and is now '33 126 106 less than the amount of specie on hand. The banking capital of the city on the 7th inst. amounted to $47,144,900. Within the past two weeks a new bank, called the Eighth Avenue Bank, has been started, will a capital of one hundred thousand dollars.

The bids for $100,000 of the York and Cumberland Railroad guarantied bonds were opened at the banking house of Greenway & Co. Baltimore, on Saturday. The aggre gate bids amounted to $140,000, ranging from 1/4 to $2.51 premium.
